

Aba House

African Textile Workshop in Ghana

with Cross Cultural Collaborative, Inc.
August 2-15, 2008

$2400 for 14 days

Included: airport pickup, accommodations, breakfast, dinner, materials and workshop fees, entrance fees, and transportation within Ghana (driver, guide and fuel).

Not included: lunch, bottled water and other beverages, international airfare (but we can help get discount airfares for you)

for more information:

aba@culturalcollaborative.org
<http://www.culturalcollaborative.org>

Who are We?

Cross Cultural Collaborative, Inc. (CCC) is an educational non-profit encouraging cultural interaction between people of all ages and nationalities. We invite people to Ghana to promote cultural exchange and understanding through the arts.

Aba House is a guest house and cultural center where workshops and other activities sponsored by CCC take place. Across the street from the ocean and only a half-hour drive to the airport, Aba House is located in Nungua, a coastal fishing village in a suburb of Accra.

What Will You Do in Ghana?

- Go to a local festival
- Visit a famous Krobo village and beadmaker's workshop
- Attend workshops taught by African artisans
 - adinkra
 - batik
 - tie and dye
 - asafo flag design
 - kente weaving
 - and more!
- Visit museums, galleries, and dealers in antique textiles
- Attend a performance by an African drum & dance troupe